Our Classroom Rules are as follows:

1. Respect all people and property.
2. Listen and follow directions.
3. Practice safety.
4. Be on time and have necessary materials.
5. Be responsible for your own work.

Each week, each student will receive one hundred (100) points from the three teachers combined. If a student chooses to commit an infraction, the consequences will be points deducted according to the list below:

-10 points not following directions
talking unprepared for class (including books, supplies, AR book)
not returning signed/corrected papers on the assigned date
failure to follow uniform code

-20 points misbehavior and/or making loud noises in the hall or classroom
misbehavior when the teacher is called out of the classroom
failure to respect the rights and/or property of others
disrespect of any kind to other students

-31 points cheating lying to the teacher
Forgery/Plagiarism disrespect to teacher, faculty, or staff
fighting /bullying talking during a test
stealing send out of room for discipline
misbehavior in church

If a major infraction occurs, you will be notified either by note or by phone the same day. At the end of each grading period, the student's weekly conduct grades will be averaged and that conduct grade will be reported in the homeroom subject area on the report card.

Thank you for your support and cooperation.
